Adkisson

Karen BarbeeAdkisson began studying Belly Dance at the age of 10. Over three decades later, Karen has developed a teaching methodology for this ancient dance form based on technical precision, soulful innovation, and cultural respect. Having begun her study of Belly Dance during the 1970's, a period of limited explanations, she developed her own. Her background in Systems Analysis enables her to analyze movement, decompose that movement, and explain it to others in a logical way. Karen's years of teaching have enabled her to hone her teaching skills and develop a strong philosophy and curriculum, which have evolved into progressions she refers to as "From Mastery to Mystery"

Karen has operated Karavan Belly Dance Productions in San Antonio, Texas for 25 years, directed numerous staged productions of Middle Eastern Dance, studied and performed in Egypt and Lebanon, and has worked with some of the most highly acclaimed musicians in the business. In addition, she has produced several instructional DVDs and has trained some of the world's leading professional dancers and choreographers. www.karenbarbee.com

Raaz (Ross Hughes) has an AA degree in music from Santa Monica College, and an advanced Diploma in Speech and Drama from the ADK in South Africa. He is also a qualified EMT, and a certified personal trainer through NASM. He has worked extensively in the music and film industries in South Africa, and in Dallas has worked for numerous theater companies, including Shakespeare Dallas. He is also a dance choreographer - in 2008 he choreographed Dallas Junior Players' Bollywood version of A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM.

Raaz trained under fitness guru Anne Couzens in Durban, South Africa, competed in numerous dance competitions, and performed in dance cabaret (The Ruby Tuesday dancers). An enthusiastic martial artist of many styles, Raaz has trained in both South Africa and the States. Dance teachers include Suzette Van Der Merve, Andri Botes, Adele Blank, and Jean Welfare; he has participated in workshops with many of the top Tribal Fusion bellydancers. His teachers in Middle-eastern dance include Candace Bordelon and Tamra Henna. Previous dance troupes in South Africa: Electro Strutters, Boss, and Bash Street Rockers. He is represented as an actor by CORE talent.

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOW AT THE ROSE MARINE THEATER

Doors Open at 7:30

Show starts at 8:00

- Adults $20 $25
- Children (5-10 years old) $10 $15
- Children (under 5 years old) FREE FREE

- SUNDAY, 11am -1pm with RAAZ $60 $70
Debke Fusion: A Raaz favorite, this is a fusion between Palestine and Lebanese Debke (traditional Middle Eastern dance) and west coast "jumping" funk dances, particularly C-walk. This is very energetic & mostly high impact, although modifications can be made to be easier on the knees and legs. A great workout and very funky!

- SUNDAY, 2pm - 4pm with KAREN BARBEE ADKISSON $60 $70
Debke Fusion: Karen's favorite folkloric dance form — Debke!! Why steer clear of the great music of Fares Karam, Assi El Hellani, Melhem Zein, and others....just because we are belly dancers!?? You will learn an entire dance that fuses the heavy elements of debke with the feminine beauty of raks sharqi for a fun, fused masterpiece!
